

The High Country is one big adventure. You can follow in the footsteps of Australia's indigenous settlers, ride through 'Man from Snowy River' country, listen to the legends of Australia's indigenous settlers and go in search of the elusive platypus.

There's the thrill of abseiling if you've got a taste for real adventure, and fine food and wine for those with a taste for gourmet discoveries.